2021-IGAP-00009	01/27/2021	Appealing OIG's final No Records response.	Other Request
2021-IGAP-00010	03/25/2021	I appeal the denial of my request. The denial of the request on the basis of Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. statute 552(b)(7)(A) is inappropriate, lacks specificity and offers no description of the available records required. DHS OIG failed to conduct an adequate search and that they incorrectly decided to withhold all documents. We further appeal that DHS OIG failed to describe the law enforcement investigation with reasonable particularity. Failing to release the identified documents, or to even identify them, prejudices the requesting party.	Complete/Revised

Extensive publicly available reporting has detailed the Saudi government's efforts to repatriate citizens charged with crimes in the United States. A series of articles by ProPublica and The Oregonian detailed more than 20 cases in which Saudi citizens have fled justice in the United States and Canada since 1988. State Department officials, according to these articles, stated that they have raised the issue with senior Saudi leadership. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable nonexempt portions of documents. Releasing information about this issue is in the public interest, as it promises to shed light on the U.S.-Saudi relationship, which has been the subject of intense national debate.
