2022-IGFO-00219	07/07/2022	To Whom It May Concern: Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, I hereby request the following records: The "after-action report" prepared by Border Patrol's El Paso Sector in late 2017 at the conclusion of a pilot program in which Customs and Border Protection agents separated migrant families in order to prosecute adult family members. A November 2019 report by the Department of Homeland Security's Office of Inspector General references this after-action report: "the El Paso Sector provided an after-action report to Border Patrol's Acting Chief of Operations (b) (6) calling for greater coordination among the various stakeholders." This after-action report has also been referenced in the news media. An article in the Intercept published November 1, 2020 states that "the El Paso sector's after-action report also highlighted a 64 percent reduction in illegal crossings on the border during the pilot project."	-
2022-IGFO-00220	07/08/2022	Our review of your agency's public FOIA reading room, and a comparison of the publicly available FOIA logs your agency publishes, reveals that a number of thrice-requested materials appear to be missing. Consequently, we file this request to understand the process by which your agency determines what to include under the Beetlejuice Provision. 1. Please provide all calendar entries, meeting minutes, attendee lists, working papers (or similar documents), slide decks or presentations, and follow-up calendar items for any meeting your agency's FOIA Officer or designee held to consider the agency's affirmative releases and proactive disclosures under the Beetlejuice Provision. 2. Please provide any record reflecting your agency's FOIA Officers' identification of a record that may be eligible for release based upon the Beetlejuice Provision because it has been requested three times under paragraph 3. If the records requested are kept in an electronic system of records, like eFOIAExpress, we would accept a printout of requests designated as potential subject to proactive release under the Beetlejuice Provision in lieu of records responsive to this Item. 3. Any guidance your agency issued for FOIA professionals regarding identification of requests that are potentially subject to proactive release under the Beetlejuice Provision. Please task a search period beginning on January 1, 2022, and ending May 18, 2022.	-
